

The international Editorial Board of the journal "Political Thought" announces:

A Call for Papers

"Political Thought" is a quarterly thematic journal on political and social issues. The international Editorial Board of the journal wishes to announce an open call for papers for the upcoming issue on the topic:

Functioning Market Economy and Social (in)Equality

Interested contributors may approach the topic from different aspects and in different contexts i.e. with a Macedonian, regional or international dimension.

All interested contributors must submit a short abstract (200-300 words) and a short biography to the Editorial Board not later than 20th of August 2014.

The deadline for submitting the final version of the selected proposals is 20th of September 2014. Proposals and final texts can be submitted in Macedonian, English or German.

All texts need to be in compliance with the conditions set in the Standards for Publishing Texts in "Political Thought".

Any attempts for plagiarism will be strictly sanctioned by the editorial board.

All proposals, texts and questions should be submitted to:
